2023 SEA TURTLE MONITORING SEASON Wildlife Sense monitored the nesting beaches of Kefalonia from May to November. Researchers 330 also patrolled the Bay of Argostoli and observed nests 1008 the health, threats and interactions of foraging non-nesting and mating sea turtles. emergences Over escued from 31,109 .468 Hatched eggs laid on beaches eggs monitored by Green Sea Turtle Wildlife Sense Harbour Individuals 6 Measured as a Joey IFE SENSE part of CMF Barb Most frequent 6,592 Hatchlings AESEARCH-CONSERVATION-EL Harbour helped to sea from turtles Melia 5 Nesting females tagged Turtles were 31 Nest nesting female returned from previous Bay of vears 16% 27% Unknown Capture-Mark-Female Recapture Data 53 % seen more than once Largest recorded: 93cm CCL 57% Male Smallest recorded:28cm CCL 158 Newly tagged turtles First Emerged May 15 Mating served February 27 dst. Idt. II ember 13 First Hatched on July 19 Last Hatch First Nest Laid August 29 Last Nest